

The Festival Berlioz in the heart of the French Alps! 4 days / 3 nights 2016

From 483 €/pers based on 40 pax

Subject to availability

Day 1: Arrival / Chartreuse

Picking up the group at the Lyon St Exupery airport. Welcome of participants.
Departure to the Massif de la Chartreuse.
Lunch.

Visit of the Museum of the Grande Chartreuse housed in an old dependency of the Monastery. It makes you discover the mystery of the Carthusian Order, whose mother-house is closed and cannot be visited. The museum and its many rooms open you the doors to the inner and spiritual adventure of the Carthusian monks, as well as their vocation to solitude and lifestyle. Visit of the Chartreuse Cellars in Voiron. Discovery of the largest liquor cellars in the world where only two Carthusian monks hold the secret assembly of 130 plants needed to develop the precious liquor.

Arrival at the hotel in Grenoble.

Day 2: Festival Berlioz In La Cote St Andre

Accompanied by a guide, discover Grenoble, capital of the Alps.

With the cable-car, you can access the site of the Bastille, the last foothills of the Chartreuse. You will enjoy a panoramic view of the city and its fantastic mountains : Oisans, Chartreuse and Vercors. Grenoble, today a main scientific centre, is also known to have hosted the WINTER OLYMPICS in 1968. Many books bear witness to this historic episode.

Lunch at the panoramic restaurant then departure to La Cote St Andre, where takes place the famous yearly festival dedicated to its native son of the soil : Hector Berlioz. You can visit his birthplace and attend various musical entertainments in the afternoon. (free visit and time).

Free dinner. Evening concert (reserved seats). Return to Grenoble.

Day 3: Chamonix

Departure to Chamonix, Mecca of mountaineering and skiing. Boarding on the train of Montenvers to access the Sea Of Ice, the largest glacier in Europe; at the end of a long corridor carved into the ice, you will enter the heart of the glacier and admire the ice sculptures.

Lunch.

In the afternoon (depending on the weather): ascent of the Aiguille du Midi by cable car (the highest in Europe). At the summit, 3842 meters high, you will enjoy an exceptional 360 ° view, featuring the: Mont Blanc. Return to GRENOBLE late in the afternoon.

DAY 4: LYON and return

Starting in the early morning to Lyon (UNESCO World Heritage). After a scenic stop at Notre Dame de Fourvière, you will discover the old city on foot. A beautiful Renaissance style, with a typical feature of the city: the presence of "traboules" (alleyways) to safely walk through the buildings.

Lunch. Transfer to the airport of Lyon St Exupéry. End of our services.

COMPLEMENTARY DAY: the Rhone Valley Condrieu Côte-Rôtie / Vienne

Morning: discovery of a domain and wine tasting

Lunch cruise "the vineyards of Condrieu and Ampuis - tour of the vineyards

Afternoon: guided tour of Vienne labelled "City of Art and History", which includes 42 places protected as Historic Monuments. An exceptional antique heritage reflecting the splendour of the city in Roman times.

The order of the scheduled visits may be reverse, but all the program activities will be carried out.
